

Current press releases

Press review

Here you will find texts, images and additional information for our press releases in electronic form.

Web-I/Os

Web-I/Os now also with OPC UA

The Web-I/O range from Wiesemann & Theis GmbH now supports OPC UA, one of the most important common communications standards. Now Web-I/Os can make even older machines, controllers and measuring devices viable for the future.

Read full text

timeair

The first CO₂ controlled fresh air timer

Wiesemann und Theis GmbH in Wuppertal/Germany introduces the timeair, the first CO₂-controlled fresh air timer on the market. The manufacturer of microcomputer and network technology for business-to-business now responds to the challenges of the consumer market.

Read full text

MQTT.box

MQTT broker for the control cabinet

Wiesemann & Theis GmbH have added an MQTT broker for DIN rail mount to their line of IoT and Industry 4.0 products. MQTT is an M2M protocol for data communication even over unstable connection lines and is finding increasing use in IoT and Industry 4.0.

Read full text

Do you have more questions on the topic of press releases and images or would you like to be added as a recipient for W&T press releases?

Mr. Fazenda will be glad to help:

Phone: +49 202 2680-200

e-Mail: m.fazenda@wut.de

For technical questions our engineers are available at +49 202 2680-110.

